Scavenger Hunt! For the next week or so, each day I'll hide in a place and post a photo here. Try to find me and you might learn some secret Home Base spots!

First up...some may already know this place (one of you actually found it originally):

@dragoncat Are you clicking on the button to move islands? It's the one in this screenshot I've put a red box around. What happens when you click it?

Good news! Lil Phil is even better now. Words like "zittens" and other game/book terms now will successfully appear in chat.

Again I'll be around at 3pm EST to hang out and answer questions for an hour. Yesterday's convos were really fun :D

@Volleyballrobin Home Base is an online multiplayer world where you can play games and chat with your friends. You can hang out on a variety of islands themed after our book series, right now we have Wings of Fire, The Bad Guys, and I Survived. It's early in beta right now, meaning we still have a lot of work to do on it and there are a number of bugs/issues we're working to fix.

@Dragoncat are you playing on wifi on your phone or on your computer? That sounds like it could be an internet connection issue. Are you able to log in or does it kick you out before that?

@Cora well you're in luck today! I'm doing an event at 7pm EST tonight - a book birthday party for The Lost Heir graphic novel release!

Secondly, here's this gif to brighten your day:

Third, we're currently testing a bug-fixing update. It will fix some things you may or may not notice. We also have another major update with new features coming in the spring. I'll be making an announcement about that very soon as it will herald some changes that I think you'll be excited about, though I'm sure I'll have a lot of questions to answer about it. Expect to see these things soon!

It’s great, but I can’t wait until they add Peril and either Jade mountain or the Skywing queendom. I hope they add more dragons to each queendom too. I know it’s only in beta version, but I just feel like it’s missing almost all my favorite characters.
